..... PRODUCERS

Catch the Wave

Surf's up! We hope you're as stoked as we are to catch this wave right into the Bahamas with the 2022 Care Solutions Summer Incentive Contest. You'll have the opportunity to increase your chances of attending the 2023 Independent Leaders' Conference. But that's not all — we have three other epic experiences just waiting to be won.

When is the contest?

July 1 through Sept. 30, 2022

How does it work?

You will earn double production credit on applications submitted July 1 through Sept. 30 and paid by Dec. 16, to use towards qualification for the 2023 Independent Leaders' Conference in the Bahamas.

Throughout the qualification period, you will also have the chance to catch one of three special "set waves":

- Box tickets to an Indianapolis Colts game
- Box tickets to an Indiana Pacers game
- Box tickets to the Indianapolis 500

For each case submitted during the contest period (must submit a minimum of two applications and $250K of premium credit to qualify) you will receive an entry towards one of those three exclusive experiences. At the conclusion of the contest, three winners will be drawn at random. The first winner drawn may choose from any of the three experiences. The second winner drawn may choose from the remaining two, and the third winner drawn will receive the last remaining experience. Each experience allows the qualifier/winner to bring one guest (travel and accommodations included).

Qualification standings

Throughout the contest, current qualification standings will be communicated so everyone knows who's riding the wave with them.
